ABOUT THE TRAINING

Why join the community-based freshwater aquaculture training course?

- To promote aquaculture technologies to rural communities for livelihood and poverty alleviation.
- SEAFDEC/AQD has done extensive research and development projects on freshwater species.

What can be learned from the course?

Participants will gain technical knowledge and skills on seed production, hatchery, nursery, and grow-out phase of commercially important freshwater species; post-harvest techniques; and technology extension.

Course objectives

1. To capacitate aquaculture extension officers on community organizing through participatory approach.
2. To enhance the knowledge and skills of aquaculture extension officers on freshwater aquaculture technologies from broodstock development to seed production, nursery and grow-out phase.
3. To enhance the skills of aquaculture extension officers in the transfer and extension services of freshwater aquaculture technologies.

What to expect at the training center?

SEAFDEC/AQD training courses on freshwater species are conducted at Binangonan Freshwater Station (BFS) that is equipped with lecture rooms, laboratories, hatchery, land-based tanks, and lake-based cages. BFS also has a library that the trainees can use for their research.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation cost is not included in the training fee but lodging at the duplex house units in SEAFDEC/AQD's Binangonan Freshwater Station is recommended. Each unit has two air-conditioned bedrooms (two single beds per bedroom), a bathroom, a living area, and dining space. All units are furnished with a television and refrigerator. A washing machine is also provided for communal use. For more details and reservations, please contact Ms. Evangeline Goto at 09978992278 or e-mail bfs@seafdec.org.ph/egoto.bfs@gmail.com.

FOOD

Food can be arranged from local cook or food caterer on a per order basis. Trainees can also cook food on their own, since cooking wares and utensils are provided in each unit. Training applicants are advised to make prior arrangements since there is no canteen inside the station or restaurants nearby.

TRANSPORTATION

From Mandaluyong City, participants may take UV Express Van bound for Binangonan, Rizal at the Starmall terminal (near the MRT Shaw Boulevard Station). Get off at the University of Rizal System (URS) or Municipal Hall of Binangonan and take a tricycle or jeepney going to the Binangonan fishport. For those who will bring their own car, a parking area at Barangay Hall of Libis (near the Binangonan fishport) is available for a reasonable fee. Estimated travel time from Mandaluyong City to Binangonan is two hours. Boat shuttle service from Binangonan fishport to the training venue is provided on the day of arrival (usually on a Sunday) and departure of all trainees. Alternatively, the trainees can take a Pipindan-bound commercial passenger boat which has scheduled trips every hour from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. excluding weekends.

INTERNET

The lecture room is provided with Wi-Fi internet connection. Internet access during lectures is not available so as not to disrupt the training session.

SECURITY

Security guards are on duty 24 hours a day inside the station premises.
